

The Jaketown Museum offers a glimpse of stone tools and artifacts dating back to the Late Archaic Period.

A catfish lunch from Long's Drug Store is a customers' favorite. The drug store is also a gift shop and soda fountain.

The Delta Pottery Shop carries pottery handmade by Carol Grice Graves and her husband.

belzoni's lure

This Delta town reels-in good times, good food, and wonderful small-town life.

story by matt pitt
photography by bonnie dickerson

small-town spotlight | mississippi matters

“One thing I like about Belzoni is its community atmosphere.”

—Steve Anderson
Belzoni Humphreys Development Foundation
Executive Director

A unique water sculpture invites travelers to stop and visit the Catfish Museum & Visitor Center.

At the Jaketown Museum a piece of artwork depicts the native inhabitants of the lower Mississippi River Valley.

Each year, hundreds of flower enthusiasts flock to Wister Gardens, a 14-acre garden-estate.